SUMMARY

LD 1902 proposed to prevent employers involved in a labor dispute from receiving job applicants at any work site involved in the labor dispute. Those employers may conduct hiring activities at a site located away from the worksite. It also prohibited the possession of dangerous weapons at any location where hiring procedures were being undertaken and prevented public law enforcement officers from wearing their uniform or badge except when on active duty.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-298) rewrote the LD and made the following changes.

1. It requires the employer to give 10 days' notice of off-site hiring activities to the local law enforcement agencies.
2. It prohibits any picketing or protesting within 200 feet of any off-site hiring location by employees involved in the labor dispute.
3. It limits the prohibition on local law enforcement officers wearing their official uniforms so that it applies only within the area of the labor dispute.

House Amendment "A" (H-424) strips the emergency from the LD.
