SUMMARY
New Draft Of LD 1918

LD 1928 was the new draft of LD 1918, the Governor's workers' compensation reform bill. The substance of the LD was included as Senate Amendment "A" to LD 1929 -- the workers' compensation insurance reform bill. The LD included many changes to the workers' compensation system, including the following:

1. It gave the Maine Human Rights Commission jurisdiction to hear complaints of discrimination in hiring because of a previous workers' compensation claim;
2. Required the Workers' Compensation Commission to adopt a medical services fee schedule by rule;
3. Froze the maximum weekly benefit for one additional year until July 1, 1989;
