SUMMARY
This bill contained several provisions concerning the sale or removal of mobile homes from parks. It would have prohibited park operators from requiring any home to be removed because of its age, while retaining their right to require that homes meet certain specified standards relative to safety and condition.

The bill also would have eliminated municipal zoning provisions requiring excessively large lot sizes which have the effect of banning mobile home parks.

For additional mobile home bills see Legal Affairs Committee.

RACINE

One section of this bill corrected an erroneous reference in the Maine Revised Statutes.

The other section of the bill expands the regulatory power of boards within the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation to both fine licensees and suspend their license; whereas, current law does not allow both disciplinary actions concurrently.

The committee amendment clarifies language but does not affect the original intent of the bill.
