SUMMARY

Although current law does not specifically address how campaign financing reports should include donations of items later sold at auction, the Commission on Governmental Ethics and Election Practices issued a ruling in 1987 requiring an initial reporting and then 2 other reports when the item is sold. The original bill would have required an initial report by the candidate, then an adjustment when the item is sold. The Committee reported out a New Draft, LD 2541.

The bill was recommitted to Committee, which reported out the bill a second time as amended.

The Committee Amendment "A" (H-607) was not accepted. It would have let stand the Commission's ruling, and would have closed the potential loophole for for first campaign reports. It would have changed the filing date for party nomination papers from April 1st to April 2nd. Ruled not germane.

House Amendment "A" (H-623) added the language closing the loophole for first campaign reports.
