SUMMARY

This bill clarifies that the Kennebec County commissioners may revise the county budget during the year but only with approval of the Legislature. It provides that if the Legislature does not respond within 30 days, the county budget may be increased by an amount not to exceed the same period of a year ago by 10% more than the current budget exceeds the prior year's budget. Also, transfers between departments are allowed after this 30 day period of no response.

The chapter which provides for the Kennebec County Budget Committee is to Sunset September 30, 1988.

SUMMARY

This bill does the following:

Develops a very specific timetable for selection of budget committee members. Requires an early meeting between the county commissioners, the budget committee, and the legislative delegation to agree on the budget. Adds a requirement for formal approval, including power to amend, by the legislative delegation. Eliminates the requirement for submitting the budget to the Secretary of State, leaving the requirement that it be submitted directly to the Legislature. Changes the submitting body from the county budget committee to the legislative delegation. Requires that this submission be at a public hearing of the Committee on State and Local Government. Allows the Legislature to revise the budget rather than return it for revision. Adds a provision that if the Legislature has not approved the budget by May 1, the County may operate on a budget which exceeds the previous year by 10%. Adds a provision that, if the Legislature fails to act on a request for a budget revision during the year, the County may transfer between departments and may operate on a budget in which a given month may exceed the same month of a year ago by 10% more than the current year's budget exceeding the previous year's. Previously, a failure to act within 15 days was considered disapproval.
