(2) improving fisheries with a state-of-the-art hatchery and (3) recommending alternative sources of funding for these projects.

The Commission was scheduled to submit a final report to the Legislature by February 15th of this year. However, Commission members felt that additional time was needed to provide meaningful recommendations for the enhancement of Maine's sport fisheries. LD 2275 extends the reporting deadline of the Commission until December 1, 1988, and provides the additional time necessary for the Commission to carry out its statutory mandate. A House Amendment (H-486) adds a $1000 allocation to the bill to cover anticipated costs for the commission.

LD 2292 RESOLVE, to Reconstitute the Commission to Review the Laws Relating to Registered Maine Guides (Reported Pursuant to Resolves of 1987, Chapter 17) RESOLVE 105 EMERGENCY

SPONSOR(S)	COMMITTEE REPORT	AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
	OTP-AM	H-610 S-421 USHER S-470 ERWIN E

SUMMARY

The Commission to Review the Laws Relating to Registered Maine Guides was created by the First Regular Session of the 113th Legislature to take a comprehensive look at the laws relating to Maine guides. LD 2420 incorporates their recommendation. They also identified two issues for further attention: state licensing of outfitters and developing a system for assistant guides.

This bill reconstitutes the commission to deal with these issues during 1988. A committee amendment (H-610) repealed the fiscal note and specified that funding for this bill come from the remaining funds from last year's appropriation. A Senate amendment (S-421) corrected several technical errors.

LD 2341 An Act to Permit Fly-Fishing Only on a Portion of the St. Croix River LV/WD

TAMMARO RUHLIN	LV/WD

SUMMARY

This bill proposed to close a statutory loophole that allowed spin casting fishermen to fish for Atlantic Salmon on the St. Croix River. However, the department addressed this problem through regulation and the bill was withdrawn.
