AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY
This bill proposed to create a technology retraining investment fund. Any contributions made to the fund by the employee would be matched by the employer. In turn, this fund could be used by the employee for retraining should the company close or pursue another branch of manufacturing.

Opponents of the bill cited a duplication of efforts if the program were instituted and a lack of professional assessment over how best to use the funds.

S-327 DUTREMBLE

SUMMARY
New Draft Of LD 1029

This bill was held over from the First Regular Session. The original bill proposed to change the current appeals process within the Bureau of Employment Security by creating a separate Office of Administrative Law Judges.

The new draft changes the name of the appeals office to the Division of Administrative Hearings but leaves the office within the Bureau of Employment Security. Most of the bill makes technical changes to effect this change. An amendment (S-327) corrects a drafting error in the bill.
