career. These amounts are presently excluded by standing Retirement System practice and by rules adopted last year. The rules are presently being challenged in court.

The committee amendment would have eliminated one provision of the bill restricting salary increases, for computing compensation for retirement purposes, to 10%. Senate Amendment A (S-420) would have allowed all payments received pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement in effect prior to September 1, 1988 to be included as salary. The House amendment (H-686) did the same thing but added an appropriation. Senate Amendment B (S-445) added an effective date of July 31, 1988 to the original bill.

SUMMARY
New Draft Of LD 2179

The original bill changed the definition of spouse in the Retirement System Laws to include the individual a member was married to at the time of retirement. The new draft applied the definition members who were under special plans and eligible for a special survivor's benefit for their spouses. It also made it clear that if the member had remarried, a members spouse was the individual the member was married to at the time of death.

The intent of both the original bill and the new draft was to pay 100% of a retired teachers health insurance if the teacher was over 70 years of age, had 25 years of creditable service, and was a Maine resident. The new draft capped the state payment at the amount of the Medicare companion plan for retired teachers.
