SUMMARY

LD 2638 was the 2nd errors bill.

House Amendment "A" (H-755) added provisions which provided for a vacancy to be declared on the school board or school committee governing a school administrative district or a municipal school district if the board member missed 3 consecutive regular board meetings without excuse.

House Amendment "B" (H-784) provided a grandfather clause to allow any municipality which issued shellfish licenses by a lottery method to continue using that method.

Senate Amendment "A" (S-497) permitted municipalities to adopt any method of issuing shellfish licenses that it desired.

Senate Amendment "B" rewrote the school board vacancy provisions to extend it to also cover community school districts.
