S-237

SUMMARY

LD 262 proposed to permit employees who have lost their employment due to a work-related disability to continue their group health insurance, at the employee's expense, whether or not the employer chose to controvert the employee's workers' compensation claim.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-237) clarified the language of the original bill and made the following changes.

1. It restricted the level of continued health coverage to the same level that the employee was receiving before losing employment.
2. It provided a uniform period of 31 days from termination of coverage in which the employee must choose whether to continue group coverage.
3. It provided a uniform maximum duration period of one year for extended group health coverage under the LD, regardless of whether the termination was due to a temporary layoff or a workers' compensation claim, except that this period ends if the Workers' Compensation Commission finds that an employee's injury was not work-related.
