SUMMARY

The original bill revised the notice provisions in the Probate Code to ensure that reasonably ascertainable creditors received notice in compliance with the U.S. Supreme Court decision in Tulsa Professional Collection Services v. Pope. (Carried over from the First Regular Session.)

Committee Amendment "A" (H-758) replaced the bill. It incorporates the amendments to the Uniform Commercial Code adopted by the National Conference of Uniform Law Commissioners in 1989. The amendment covers notice by personal representatives, the barring of claims, and immunity for personal representatives, and sets an outside limit for filing claims of 9 months after death. Uniform Probate Code comments are included.
