AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

The bill prohibits the performance of an abortion on a minor except when the attending physician has obtained the informed written consent of the minor and one parent or guardian; the minor is emancipated; the minor has been granted the right of self-consent by the court; or the minor has been granted consent by the court.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-127) (majority report) replaced the text of the bill. It prohibits the performance of an abortion except where a parent, guardian or adult family member consents; the minor is physically and mentally competent to give consent; the minor has received required information and counseling; or the court grants the right of self-consent or consents to the abortion on behalf of the minor.

Committee Amendment "B" (H-128) (minority report) moved the jurisdiction to the Probate Court, clarified that a guardian ad litem could be appointed for the minor, and established that the court proceedings and records are not public. (Not adopted)

House Order Propounding Questions to the Supreme Judicial Court set forth questions on the constitutionality of specific provisions of Committee Amendment "A". (Not adopted)

House Amendment "A" to House Order (H-186) revised the questions to be asked of the Justices. (Not adopted)

House Amendment "A" (H-149) reproduced the majority report with 3 changes: 1) members of the clergy cannot provide the information and counseling; 2) petitions to the court must set forth that the minor is legally competent; and 3) an appeal of a court decision must be made within 72 hours. (Not adopted)

Senate Amendment "A" to Committee Amendment "A" (S-98) makes 4 changes: 1) deletes members of the clergy; 2) counselors affiliated with church groups do not have to provide information on abortion; 3) counselors must provide information on post-abortion and post-delivery counseling; and 4) deletes the nonseverability clause. (Not adopted)
