OTP-ND	Ought to Pass in New Draft
OTP-ND-NT	Ought to Pass in New Draft, New Title
OTP-A	Ought to Pass as Amended

Each individual summary was prepared by the analyst assigned, as noted for each committee. But, this document was produced by the efforts of all the office staff, including Research Assistant Barbara McGinn, and secretaries: Charlene Brann, and Valarie Parlin, and especially Laurette Knox who coordinated preparation of the overall document.

Please give us your suggestions and comments on these summaries and tell us of any inaccuracies.

TARDY PERKINS TAMMARO HUSSEY	OTP-AM	H-220

SUMMARY

The bill made it a crime for any person to harvest, possess or remove blueberries from the land of another without written permission of the land owner. It also made it a crime to transport blueberries without a permit. Finally, the bill made it a crime to receive blueberries without inspecting the transportation permit and recording the source of the blueberries and the identity of the driver.

The amendment made a number of substantive changes in the bill. An exemption in Section 4314 for persons harvesting or removing less than 5 pounds of blueberries from the land of another without permission was removed.

Section 4315 was amended to increase from 5 to 25 pounds the amount of blueberries requiring a transportation permit. Provisions exempting the transport of non-native blueberries and blueberries purchased at a retail outlet were rewritten for clarity and included as sub-section 4. The penalty for transporting without a permit is reduced from a Class D to a Class E crime. Forging a permit was reduced from a Class D crime to a civil violation with a fine of not more than $500.

The penalty in section 4316 for failure by anyone receiving more than 5 pounds of blueberries to inspect, record and retain a record of the transportation permit number is reduced from a Class D crime to a civil violation with a fine of not more than $1,000.

The amendment adds language to repeal the bill's provisions on July 1, 1991.
