AMENDMENTS ADOPTEDH-162
H-224 PRIESTSUMMARY

This bill makes several changes to and clarifications of the laws regarding marriage. The bill requires that a marriage application contain a certified statement that each party is free to marry and that before the marriage is solemnized both parties sign each marriage license issued. The amendment also clarifies the procedures for issuance of marriage licenses to minors under the age of 18 and those under the age of 16. The bill amends current law to require only the town which issued the marriage license to the bride to transmit a copy of the license to the Department of Human Services Office of Vital Statistics. The bill also specifies that a lawyer who is a member of the Maine bar may solemnize marriages and amends current law to allow a notary public to perform a marriage for a relative.

Committee Amendment "A" deletes the part of the bill regarding performance of marriage ceremonies by a notary public (See LD 353). The amendment also clarifies that municipal clerks shall send the State's copy of the marriage certificate directly to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics rather than to the bride.

House Amendment "A" clarifies that notice and opportunity for a hearing must be given before a Judge of Probate may refuse to issue a marriage license to a minor.

SUMMARY

This bill requires landlords who enter into leases for one year or longer to use a written lease containing certain basic provisions dictated by statute. The provisions required reflect rights and duties of landlords and tenants under existing State law. The bill allows landlords to supplement the basic lease with additional provisions not adverse to tenants rights under the law. The bill allows parties to exempt themselves from the written lease requirement. The bill has an effective date of January 1, 1991.

Committee Amendment "A" requires the Attorney General, no later than February 1, 1990, to develop a model lease for use by parties to residential leases. This lease is to be advisory only and distributed on request by the Attorney General.
