AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

This bill sought to amend the law governing commercial whitewater outfitters. It would have:

1. Eliminated the waiver of liability insurance provision and required all outfitters to carry liability insurance and post a bond with the State; eliminated restrictions on the sale of an outfitter's business assuming that the annual allocation established in this bill would be of minimal market value; and eliminated the so-called "affiliated companies" loophole;
2. Modified the order of launch provision by establishing an annual random drawing system to determine launch positions; established a 1,000-person commercial use limit on the Dead River; and established an 800-person commercial use limit for Sundays on the Kennebec River;
3. Established a new allocation system by dividing up positions equally among all the qualified applicants; created an objective point system to ensure that outfitters meet established guidelines in filling allocations; and reduced the allocation period;
4. Eliminated the so-called "emergency swap" loophole which permits outfitters to shift allocated Penobscot River trips and unallocated Dead River trips over to the Kennebec River when water conditions are not suitable for rafting; and
5. Eliminated the provision which allows an outfitter to exceed an allocation because the outfitter is overbooked.

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

This bill would have increased the membership of the advisory council to the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife from 8 to 10 and reapportioned the membership to achieve a more equal statewide representation.

See LD 2149 for related bill.
