The bill repeals the sunset provision of the Driver Education Evaluation Program (DEEP). It also changes the program by eliminating the educational component for first offenders who are not referred for an evaluation and by allowing the program to require that certain first offenders participate in the multiple offender residential program. The bill also eliminates the requirement for second opinions to petition the appeals board and expands the board in anticipation of an increase in appeals.

Committee Amendment "A" retains the education component for all offenders and gives first offenders the option of participating in the multiple offender residential program in lieu of receiving a private evaluation. The amendment eliminates the changes which the original bill makes to the appeals process.
