AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

H-1042

SUMMARY

The original bill required mortgagees to pay mortgagors proceeds of the sale of property occurring within 2 years of the expiration of the period of redemption after strict foreclosure.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-1042) replaced the bill. It repeals existing provisions governing the disposition of proceeds of sales of property after foreclosure. It requires a mortgagee who acquires title to property through foreclosure without possession to account to the mortgagor if the property is sold within 2 years after the one-year redemption period. Specific costs and expenses may be retained, but the surplus must be paid to the mortgagor. Applies only to mortgages executed on or after the effective date.

SUMMARY

The original bill permitted a prosecutor to seek forfeiture of a firearm used in certain crimes against persons in a civil proceeding separate from the prosecution for the crime itself.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-995) replaced the bill. It requires that, as part of the judgment of conviction for specific crimes against persons, any firearm used during the crime is forfeited to the State.
