SUMMARY

LD 2279 proposed to adjust the state minimum wage annually by a percentage change equal to the prior calendar year's change in the state average weekly wage.

Committee Amendment "A" gave the bill a delayed effective date of April 1, 1991 to coincide with the increase in the federal minimum wage to $4.25. It moved the date of the annual adjustment from July 1st to the following January 1st and limited the maximum adjustment in any single year to 5%. It also provided for the adjustment to be rounded off to the nearest nickel and increased the "tipping credit" to the level set by federal law. Finally, it provided that no adjustment would be made for one year if the federal minimum wage was increased in excess of the state minimum wage.
