cultivated. It also categorized the crime of trafficking based on the number of marijuana plants cultivated. It repealed the existing civil law on marijuana possession, replacing it with language in the Criminal Code making possession a Class E crime if the person operates or is in a motor vehicle or has a previous adjudication or conviction for marijuana possession. The bill required suspension of the drivers' license of any person convicted of a drug crime involving a motor vehicle and of any person adjudicated to have committed a juvenile drug crime or of a drug crime while under age 18. It also allowed the Maine National Guard to assist in drug enforcement under an ongoing executive order.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-1057) retains the provisions of the bill regarding trafficking classes and the National Guard. It also provides authority for the court to suspend the drivers' license of a juvenile for any violation of the drug laws.
