SUMMARY

Under current law, teachers were to become members of the State Retirement System as of July 1, 1989 unless they elect to remain a participating district member or to continue to be covered by Social Security. This election had to be made by January 1, 1990.

This bill allows school secretaries who did not exercise their option not to become Retirement System members because of error or oversight of their employers to have until January 1, 1991 to exercise this option.

Committee Amendment "A" relocates the text of the original bill, eliminates the provision that the error or oversight be due to the employer and adds a fiscal note.
