H-144SUMMARY

The bill allows courts that have minimal bail account balances to maintain the deposits in less-expensive noninterest-bearing accounts. It removes the restriction that deposits must be made within 72 hours of receipt. It makes revenue reporting requirements consistent for both the Superior and District Courts.

Committee Amendment "A" adds an emergency, clarifies the language and requires bail deposits to be made in a timely manner.

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

The bill would have made the state law consistent with federal law in allowing forfeiture of property for marijuana violations, and by not requiring the state prove that every coowner of the property knew or consented to the illegal activity. It also would have required that any agency receiving property forfeited under federal procedures go through the approval and record-keeping requirements of state law. See also LD 1516.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-173) replaced the bill. It would have closed 6 of the least-used libraries and upgraded the status of two others.
