AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
S-83

SUMMARY

During the Second Regular Session of the 114th Legislature, a "hold back" was created in the community corrections program, whereby 30% of corrections reimbursement due to each county must be held back by the Department of Corrections until the county demonstrates that the funds will be used to develop community corrections programs.

This bill requires that the held back funds be placed in an interest bearing account, and that interest be paid to a county when its funds are released.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-83) adds an allocation section and fiscal note to the bill.

This bill has been carried over to the Second Regular Session.
