SUMMARY

In 1986, the voters approved a bond for the construction of a maximum security facility in Warren, Maine. Construction has begun and the facility is expected to be ready in 1992. This bill establishes in statute the Maine Correctional Institution -- Warren as a separate administrative entity. Because of collective bargaining agreements, doing so (rather than running it as part of the Maine State Prison) affects how guards are hired and assigned at the new facility. The bill is being carried over the Second Regular Session to allow the Department of Corrections to negotiate with its unions.
