An Act to Amend the Maine Indian Claims Settlement Laws to Clarify Land Use in Indian Territory

CARRIED OVER

COMMITTEE REPORT

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

The bill would provide for greater flexibility in land use management by the Penobscot Nation than is currently provided for under state law by reducing the jurisdiction of the Land Use Regulation Commission over Penobscot Indian territory. The bill would also provide a mechanism addressing remedial solutions by the State and the Penobscot Nation. The bill would further provide a mechanism for allowing the State certain review powers over Penobscot Indian territory. This review power is similar to that which is provided for hunting and trapping under the terms of the Act to Implement the Maine Indian Claims Settlement.

LD 1583 An Act to Create a Preliminary Injunction for Certain Domestic Relations Cases

COMMITTEE REPORT

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

S-265

SUMMARY

Under the bill, parties to a divorce are enjoined from dissipating assets, removing children from the State and harassing the other litigant. The injunction is effective until a hearing establishes the divorcing parties' financial obligations and parental rights and responsibilities.

The injunction set up in this bill is effective against the plaintiff upon filing of the complaint and effective against the defendant upon service of the complaint. The bill is designed to provide an immediate preliminary court order that is needed for law enforcement officials to enforce state and federal parental kidnapping laws. It is not intended, however, to be used against a victim of domestic violence who needs to flee the State for protection. Most importantly, this bill is designed to reduce emotional liability resulting in conduct financially and psychologically detrimental to children of divorce.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-265) replaces the bill. It eliminates the restrictions on removing children from the State, refers only to voluntary removal of the spouse or children from insurance coverage and makes other clarifications to the bill.

An Act Concerning Motor Vehicle Registrations after Suspension of the Right to Operate a Motor Vehicle

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

OTP-AM

S-262

SUMMARY

The bill repeals the recently enacted provision of the laws that requires a court to suspend a defendant's motor vehicle registration in cases where the defendant is convicted of operating a motor vehicle after suspension of a driver's license.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-262) replaces the bill. It eliminates the requirement that the court suspend the right to register a vehicle of first-time OUI offenders. It retains the requirement for second offenders.
