COMMITTEE REPORT

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

This bill, which was enacted without reference to committee, amends the provision of law limiting the amount of money a landlord may collect as a security deposit from a tenant to 2 months' rent. The bill specifies that an advance rent payment is part of the tenant's security deposit, since it is held to secure performance of the rental agreement. Advance rent does not include rent collected for the next upcoming rental period, such as rent collected on the last day of a month to pay for the upcoming month. For the purposes of this definition, a "rental period" may not exceed one month.

H-710 CLARK H
H-713 CHONKO
H-730 LAWRENCE

SUMMARY

This bill, enacted without reference to committee, allows nonprofit organizations that operate beano, bingo or lucky seven games to use the proceeds or a portion of the proceeds to pay wages to their employees. The bill sets up a mechanism for these payments to be reported to the Chief of the State Police in order to limit excessive payments.

House Amendment "A" (H-710) limits the persons who may be compensated from the revenue generated by beano, bingo or lucky seven games to those persons who are directly and essentially involved in the operation of the games. This amendment limits the amount of compensation available to 20% of the revenue generated by the games.
