AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

This bill implements a system of parole for prisoners sentenced to terms of imprisonment under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 17-A, section 1252 in the custody of the Department of Corrections after September 1, 1992. Prisoners sentenced to county jails or sentenced upon a conviction of murder are not eligible for parole. Under the bill, parole is deemed to be imprisonment for purposes of determinate sentencing under the Maine Criminal Code. A prisoner is eligible only after serving all but 4 years or 30%, whichever is less, of the unsuspended portion of the sentence. The bill provides that the State Parole Board may not discharge or alter any condition of probation or other term assigned by a court for the suspended portion of a sentence. The bill clarifies that certain victims of crimes may receive notice of the perpetrator's release on parole. The bill authorizes electric monitoring or other forms of intensive supervision as special conditions of parole.

The bill requires rulemaking by the State Parole Board to implement the new parole provisions and requires the board jointly with the Department of Corrections to submit a report, including legislation, making recommendations necessary to implement the system.
