SUMMARY

This bill corrects an error made when the new Workers' Compensation Board was established in 1992. It restores eligibility for state group accident and sickness or health insurance for former commissioners of the Workers' Compensation Commission. It repeals eligibility for present members of the Workers' Compensation Board, as the new board members are not full-time employees of the State.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-29) clarifies that the following people are eligible for the group health plan: retired Workers' Compensation commissioners and employees of the Workers' Compensation Board who were commissioners.
