ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEENTH LEGISLATURE FIRST REGULAR SESSION

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION BEFORE THE JOINT STANDING COMMITTEES

AUGUST 1995

This document is a compilation of the bill summaries prepared by this office for the Joint Standing Committees of the Maine Legislature. The volume is organized alphabetically by committee; within each committee, the summaries are arranged by LD number. A subject index is provided at the beginning of each committee's summaries. The publication, History and Final Disposition of Legislative Documents, is helpful in determining to which committee any particular bill was referred.

In this document, the committee report or reports, the prime sponsor for each bill and the lead co-sponsor in each house if one has been designated are listed below each bill title. All adopted amendments are listed, by paper number, together with the sponsor for floor amendments. Final action on each bill is listed to the right of the title. Various categories of final action are abbreviated as follows:

taken after an accident to correct a condition that may have contributed to the accident. The purpose of this bill is to promote public safety by allowing the correction of unsafe conditions without prejudice to a person's legal situation. The Supreme Judicial Court is considering a change to the Maine Rules of Evidence that would have the same effect as this bill.

An Act to Authorize the Broadcasting of Information about Persons Who Are Delinquent with Child Support Payments

SUMMARY

Current law allows the Department of Human Services to publish the names, residences of and the amount of child support owed by delinquent child support obligors. This bill would have authorized the department to provide the same information to radio and television stations, including cable operators, for the broadcast of the information as a public service.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-77) would have added a fiscal note to the bill.

SUMMARY

This bill would have allowed public access to the information regarding applicants for government jobs who are granted interviews.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-209) would have narrowed the scope of the bill to make public records the applications and resumes of candidates for specific positions at the State, county and municipal level, including school superintendents and assistant superintendents, once they have participated in a personal interview. The provisions would have been repealed October 1, 1998. The Judiciary Committee would have had the authority to report out a bill during the 1998 Legislative Session concerning these provisions.

An Act to Extend to Businesses the Laws Concerning Protection from Harassment

H-328

SUMMARY

This bill extends the laws concerning protection from harassment to include businesses.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-328) revises the definition of "harassment" to ensure that activities protected by labor relations laws are not considered acts of harassment. The amendment also adds a fiscal note to the bill.
