ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEENTH LEGISLATURE FIRST REGULAR SESSION

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION BEFORE THE JOINT STANDING COMMITTEES

AUGUST 1995

This document is a compilation of the bill summaries prepared by this office for the Joint Standing Committees of the Maine Legislature. The volume is organized alphabetically by committee; within each committee, the summaries are arranged by LD number. A subject index is provided at the beginning of each committee's summaries. The publication, History and Final Disposition of Legislative Documents, is helpful in determining to which committee any particular bill was referred.

In this document, the committee report or reports, the prime sponsor for each bill and the lead co-sponsor in each house if one has been designated are listed below each bill title. also investigates those uses of deadly force by law enforcement officers that do not result in death, but the investigation is conducted only upon request and invitation of the law enforcement agency involved. This proposal requires that any use of deadly force by a law enforcement officer, whether or not death results, be reported to the Attorney General.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (S-145) to the bill strikes language that allows the Attorney General to designate any other law enforcement agency to conduct an investigation in a case of use of deadly force by a law enforcement officer. The Attorney General must conduct all such investigations.

The amendment also adds a mandate preamble and a fiscal note to the bill.

SUMMARY

Since the inception of the Maine Criminal Code in 1976, inflation has eroded the value of the dollar more than 200%. This erosion was used as the basis for doubling the limits of all fines authorized under section 1301 of the Maine Criminal Code. See Public Law 1991, chapter 355, sections 1 and 2. This bill doubles the dollar amounts used to classify crimes based on the value of loss or damage in order to preserve the same scale of seriousness represented by the legislative judgment made at the time the Maine Criminal Code was created.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-260) adds a fiscal note to the bill.
