SUMMARY

The federal Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act of 1994 amended the federal Truth-in-Lending Act to include new protections for consumers entering into high-rate, high-fee mortgages and reverse mortgages. This State enforces truth-in-lending at the state level and, in order to maintain parity with the new federal provisions and protect the State's exemption from federal preemption in this area, this bill incorporates these important consumer protections into law.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-447) incorporates the provisions of the federal Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act of 1994, which amended the federal Truth-in-Lending Act, into state law. These provisions that add new protections for consumers entering into high-rate, high-fee mortgages and reverse mortgages must be codified in order to maintain parity with the new federal provisions and protect the State's exemption from federal preemption in this area.

The amendment also adds a fiscal note to the bill.
