Summary Of Legislation Before The Joint Standing Committees
August 1997

We are pleased to provide this summary of bills that were considered by the 15 Joint Standing Committees of the Maine Legislature staffed by this office. The document is a compilation of bill summaries which describe each bill, committee amendments and other relevant amendments, as well as the final action taken on the bill. Also included are statistical summaries of bill activity this Session for the Legislature and each of its joint standing committees.

The document is organized for convenient reference to information on bills handled by the joint standing committees. It is organized alphabetically by committees and within committees by bill (LD) number. The committee report(s), prime sponsor for each bill and the lead co-sponsor(s), if designated, are listed below each bill title. All adopted amendments are listed by paper number. Two indices, a subject index and a numerical index by LD number are provided for easy reference to bills. They are located at the back of the document. A separate publication, History and Final Disposition of Legislative Documents, may also be helpful in providing information on the disposition of bills. These bill summaries also are available at the Law and Legislative Reference Library and on the Internet (www.state.me.us/legis/opla).

Public Law 1997, chapter 34 repeals Maine Revised Statutes, Title 17-A, section 203, subsection 3, paragraph A, which provides a defense to a prosecution of a manslaughter based upon the reckless or criminally negligent operation of a motor vehicle. This provision reduces manslaughter based upon the criminally negligent operation of a motor vehicle to a Class B crime. The defense is available under current law when the death of the victim resulted from conduct that would otherwise be defined only as a civil violation or civil infraction.

Because of the existence of Title 17-A, section 203, subsection 3, paragraph A, the court in State v. Berube, 669 A.2d 170 (Me. 1995) vacated a Class A manslaughter conviction and the 12-year sentence that had been imposed. Public Law 1997, chapter 34 overrules State v. Berube to the extent that it makes all vehicular homicides a Class A crime.
