develop a pilot program to test a centralized voter registration system and fully implement a centralized voter registration system by December 31, 2007. The Secretary of State would be authorized to adopt rules to implement and administer a centralized voter registration system. Such rules would be major substantive rules. The Secretary of State would be required to report annually to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over voter registration matters and could recommend legislation necessary to implement or administer the centralized voter registration system.

Enacted law summary

Public Law 2001, chapter 637 defines "centralized voter registration system" and authorizes the Secretary of State to apply for and receive funds for the establishment of a centralized voter registration system. It establishes the Centralized Voter Registration Advisory Committee to assist the Secretary of State and requires the Secretary of State to develop a pilot program to test a centralized voter registration system and fully implement a centralized voter registration system by December 31, 2007. Under this law, the Secretary of State is authorized to adopt rules to implement and administer a centralized voter registration system. Such rules would be major substantive rules. The Secretary of State is required to report annually to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over voter registration matters and may recommend legislation necessary to implement or administer the centralized voter registration system.
