This bill repeals and replaces a section of Title 39-A relating to penalties. The new section retains all of the language of the existing section which provides that:

The bill adds language which provides that:

- o the Attorney General shall prosecute any action necessary to recover penalties or the board may retain private counsel for that purpose; and
- o if a person fails to pay a penalty and enforcement by the Superior Court is necessary, that person shall pay court costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, and, if the failure to pay was without due cause, double the penalty.
