ACCEPTED ONTP REPORT

STRIMLING	ONTP MAJ OTP-AM MIN

LD 178 creates a two-year window for claims for which the statute of limitations had expired at the time the current law, which imposes no statute of limitations, took effect: August 11, 2000. Starting January 1, 2008, persons who were victims of child sexual abuse have the opportunity to file civil suits if the action was time-barred as of August 11, 2000. The revival of these causes of action lasts through the end of 2009.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-204)

This amendment is the minority report of the Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary. This amendment provides a one-year window for the bringing of claims against individuals accused of committing sexual acts against minors if those claims were time-barred as of August 11, 2000, rather than the two-year window proposed in the bill. The claims may be filed after January 1, 2008 and no later than December 31, 2008. The plaintiff may be awarded damages only if the plaintiff proves by clear and convincing evidence that the named defendant committed a sexual act toward the plaintiff when the plaintiff was a minor.
