An Act To Protect the Solemnity and Dignity of a Funeral or Memorial Service in Maine

PUBLIC 144
EMERGENCY

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
HASTINGS	OTP-AM MAJ ONTP MIN	S-54

This bill makes it a Class E crime for a person to pass out leaflets or handbills, display a sign or engage in oral protest, education or counseling within 1,000 feet of a facility or cemetery being used for a funeral, memorial or burial service with knowledge of the funeral, memorial or burial service during the 120 minutes immediately preceding the scheduled starting time of the funeral, memorial or burial service, during the funeral, memorial or burial service or during the 60 minutes immediately following the funeral, memorial or burial service.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-54)

This amendment replaces the bill and is the majority report of the Joint Standing Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety. The amendment adds an emergency clause and preamble, and instead of creating a new crime, it expands upon the current crime of disorderly conduct. The amendment replaces the whole statutory section on disorderly conduct to correct faulty section structure. Substantively, however, the amendment uses current law to identify funeral attendees as a special class when making a disorderly conduct analysis. The amendment specifies that in a private or public place on or near property where a funeral, burial or memorial service is being held, a person is guilty of disorderly conduct if the person knowingly accosts, insults, taunts or challenges any person in mourning and in attendance at the funeral, burial or memorial service with unwanted, obtrusive communications by way of offensive, derisive or annoying words, or by gestures or other physical conduct, that would in fact have a direct tendency to cause a violent response by an ordinary person in mourning and in attendance at a funeral, burial or memorial service.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2007, chapter 144 expands upon the current crime of disorderly conduct. Public Law 2007, chapter 144 replaces the whole statutory section on disorderly conduct to correct faulty section structure. Substantively, Public Law 2007, chapter 144 uses current law to identify funeral attendees as a special class when making a disorderly conduct analysis. The law specifies that in a private or public place on or near property where a funeral, burial or memorial service is being held, a person is guilty of disorderly conduct if the person knowingly accosts, insults, taunts or challenges any person in mourning and in attendance at the funeral, burial or memorial service with unwanted, obtrusive communications by way of offensive, derisive or annoying words, or by gestures or other physical conduct, that would in fact have a direct tendency to cause a violent response by an ordinary person in mourning and in attendance at a funeral, burial or memorial service.

Public Law 2007, chapter 144 was enacted as an emergency measure effective May 18, 2007.
