This bill creates a new Class D crime of loitering in a child safe zone. A person who has been previously convicted of committing a crime under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 17-A, chapter 11 or chapter 12 against a person who has not attained 14 years of age or a person who has been convicted in another jurisdiction for committing conduct substantially similar to that contained in chapter 11 or chapter 12 may not enter, work in, loiter at or remain in a child safe zone. "Child safe zone" means on or within 200 feet of the real property comprising a public or private elementary or secondary school; the real property comprising a child care center, a child care facility, a day care operated by a family child care provider, a nursery school or a small child care facility; or an athletic field, park, playground or recreational facility or other place where children typically gather.

A person who has been previously convicted of committing a crime under Title 17-A, chapter 11 or chapter 12 against a person who has not attained 14 years of age or a person who has been convicted in another jurisdiction for committing conduct substantially similar to that contained in chapter 11 or chapter 12 may enter a child safe zone only in specific limited circumstances.

The bill also requires the court to attach as a condition of probation for a person convicted of a chapter 11 or chapter 12 offense whom the Department of Corrections has identified as a high-risk offender that the person be monitored by the best available monitoring technology for the duration of the probation.

The amendment also creates a new Class D crime of prohibited contact with a minor in a sex offender restricted zone if a person has previously been convicted of an offense under Title 17-A, chapter 11 or 12 against another person who had not in fact attained 14 years of age or has previously been convicted in another jurisdiction for
