Joint Standing Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

Section 2 of the bill provides a definition for "crossbow," which is not currently defined in Maine law for law enforcement purposes.

Section 3 of the bill addresses an inconsistency between State and federal law regarding qualifications to carry concealed firearms. Current law provides that only the last 5 years of a person's criminal history may be used when determining whether a person is qualified to carry a concealed firearm. This sets up a situation where a person who may be eligible for a permit in Maine may be prohibited from possessing a firearm under federal law. The bill specifies that a person may not be issued a Maine permit if the person is disqualified from possessing a firearm under state or federal law.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-188)

This amendment replaces the bill. Whereas the bill creates the definition of "crossbow," the amendment strikes that definition and removes the current language in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 15, section 393 that prohibits the possession of a crossbow by a convicted felon until 5 years after the person is discharged from the sentence imposed. Public Law 2005, chapter 419 added "crossbow" to Title 15, chapter 15 regarding possession of firearms by a prohibited person. By removing "crossbow" from that chapter, a person convicted of a felony may own, possess or have under that person's control a crossbow without having to first apply for and receive a permit from the Commissioner of Public Safety.

The amendment retains that portion of the bill that adds language in Title 15, section 393, subsection 2 about the permit issued pursuant to the subsection being valid 4 years from the date of issue unless sooner revoked for cause by the issuing authority. The amendment also clarifies that disqualification to possess a firearm based on federal law prohibiting possession under Title 25, section 2003, subsection 1, paragraph B that appears in the bill must be based on federal criminal conviction information.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2007, chapter 194 repeals the current language in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 15, section 393 that prohibits the possession of a crossbow by a convicted felon until 5 years after the person is discharged from the sentence imposed. Public Law 2005, chapter 419 added "crossbow" to Title 15, chapter 15 regarding possession of firearms by a prohibited person. By removing "crossbow" from that chapter, a person convicted of a felony may own, possess or have under that person's control a crossbow without having to first apply for and receive a permit from the Commissioner of Public Safety.

Public Law 2007, chapter 194 adds language in Title 15, section 393, subsection 2 about the permit issued pursuant to the subsection being valid 4 years from the date of issue unless sooner revoked for cause by the issuing authority. Public Law 2007, chapter 194 also clarifies that disqualification to possess a firearm based on federal law prohibiting possession under Title 25, section 2003, subsection 1, paragraph B that appears in the bill must be based on federal criminal conviction information.
