school meal programs to an optional adoption of routine technical rules.

2. It directs the Department of Education to submit to the Legislature provisionally adopted rules necessary to implement the requirements of the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 20-A, section 6662, subsection 2 for the 2010-2011 school year. Rules provisionally adopted by the department must align the standards for food and beverages sold or distributed on school grounds but outside of school meal programs with the nutritional standards established for the total food service program as defined in Department of Education rules Chapter 51.

3. It changes a reference to "mentally retarded persons" to "individuals with developmental disabilities" in the law pertaining to transitional services for students with disabilities.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2009, chapter 147 makes the following changes to the education laws.

1. It repeals the requirement for scoliosis screening of students in schools.

2. It aligns foods outside of the school meal program with school nutrition standards and school lunch and milk program statutes and rules. It also directs the Department of Education to submit to the Legislature provisionally adopted rules necessary to implement the requirements of the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 20-A, section 6662, subsection 2 for the 2010-2011 school year. Rules provisionally adopted by the department must align the standards for food and beverages sold or distributed on school grounds but outside of school meal programs with the nutritional standards established for the total food service program as defined in Department of Education rules Chapter 51.

3. It changes references to "handicapped youths" to "students with disabilities" in statutes pertaining to transitional services for students with disabilities; and it changes references to "mentally retarded persons" to "individuals with developmental disabilities" to in the law pertaining to transitional services for students with disabilities.

4. It repeals outdated funding provisions and timelines for implementation of gifted and talented provisions.

5. It repeals the Maine Mentoring Partnership Grant Program since there have been no appropriations for the program for several years and the program no longer is operational.
