Joint Standing Committee on Legal and Veterans Affairs

Current law limits to 100 the number of players allowed to participate in a tournament game such as Texas Hold 'Em. This bill eliminates the limit of 100 players and instead provides that the number of players may not exceed the legal maximum allowable occupancy for that venue. In addition, current law requires that 75% of the entry fees be paid as prizes to the winners of the tournament. This bill instead provides that no less than 75% of the entry fees be paid to the winners.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-84)

This amendment strikes the provision of the bill that permitted an unlimited number of players to participate in a tournament game as long as that number was within the allowable maximum occupancy for that venue. The amendment provides that tournament games conducted on premises owned by the licensee may have up to 300 players. The amendment also provides for a graduated tournament game license fee based on the number of players to take part in the tournament. The amendment also adds an appropriations and allocations section.

Senate Amendment "A" To Committee Amendment "A" (S-323)

This amendment strikes the appropriations and allocations section.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2009, chapter 457 amends the games of chance laws to provide that tournament games conducted on premises owned by the licensee may have up to 300 players. It also provides for a graduated tournament game license fee based on the number of players to take part in the tournament.
