Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary

This bill increases the jurisdictional limit for small claims damages from $4,500 to $10,000 and increases the filing fee for small claims actions for damages over $4,500 to $120.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-335)

This amendment reduces the increase in the jurisdictional limit for small claims actions to $6,000, which is comparable with the rate of inflation since 1997. This amendment incorporates the concept included in Legislative Document 375, which is to allow a person to use small claims court to collect a claim on a debt or contract as long as the amount claimed is within the jurisdictional limits for small claims, even if the actual debt or contract has a higher value. The judgment on the amount claimed, however, is a final judgment with regard to the total debt or contract. This amendment does not prohibit a person who purchases debt from using small claims court to collect the debts, but it does require the plaintiff in such cases to file a statement with the complaint that lists the name and address of the original creditor. This amendment provides that the Legislature's intent is to increase access to justice and not to reduce revenue from filing fees. This amendment includes a recommendation to the Supreme Judicial Court that it review filing fees and revise them appropriately. This amendment adds an appropriations and allocations section to the bill.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2009, chapter 428 increases the jurisdictional limit for small claims actions to $6,000, which is comparable with the rate of inflation since 1997. Chapter 428 allows a person to use small claims court to collect a claim on a debt or contract as long as the amount claimed is within the jurisdictional limits for small claims, even if the actual debt or contract has a higher value. The judgment on the amount claimed, however, is a final judgment with regard to the total debt or contract. A person who purchases debt may use small claims court to collect the debts, but the plaintiff must file a statement with the complaint that lists the name and address of the original creditor. Chapter 428 states that the Legislature's intent is to increase access to justice and not to reduce revenue from filing fees; it includes a recommendation to the Supreme Judicial Court that it review filing fees and revise them appropriately.
