Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary

Committee Amendment "A" (H-292)

This amendment clarifies that proprietary information of the contractor is not public. "Proprietary information" is defined as information that is a trade secret or commercial or financial information, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive position of the contractor and would make available information not otherwise publicly available.

The public access provision applies to contracts, contract extensions and contract amendments executed on or after October 1, 2009.

LD 640, as amended, was reviewed and evaluated by the Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary pursuant to Maine Revised Statutes, Title 1, section 434, which requires review and evaluation of new exceptions to laws governing public records.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2009, chapter 221 provides that records of personal services work performed by private contractors are open to the public to the same extent as records relating to work performed directly by the State, although proprietary information of the contractor is not public. "Proprietary information" is defined as information that is a trade secret or commercial or financial information, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive position of the contractor and would make available information not otherwise publicly available. Information relating to wages and benefits of the employees performing the personal services work under the contract and information concerning employee and contract oversight and accountability procedures and systems are not considered proprietary information and must be treated as a public record. The public access provision applies to contracts, contract extensions and contract amendments executed on or after October 1, 2009.
