LD 962 An Act To Protect Family Caregivers

DIED ON ADJOURNMENT

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
DILL BLISS	OTP-AM MAJ ONTP MIN

This bill amends the Maine Human Rights Act to expand the protections against discrimination in employment to include family caregivers. "Family caregiver" means a person who cares for that person's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or sibling.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-295)

This amendment is the majority report. This amendment clarifies the definition of "family member," which the bill added to the Maine Human Rights Act, to cross-reference the definitions of "domestic partner" and "sibling" in the laws concerning family medical leave. This amendment directs that the addition of family caregiver status as a category protected from employment discrimination may not be construed to require an employer to provide accommodation for family caregivers. (Not adopted)

Senate Amendment "A" To Committee Amendment "A" (S-259)

This amendment deletes the section of Committee Amendment "A" that establishes a rule of construction in unallocated language. This amendment adds a new provision to the Maine Human Rights Act in the description of what constitutes unlawful discrimination to clarify that a claim for unlawful discrimination based on family caregiver status may be maintained only by proof that the complaining party has been harmed by a covered entity's bias, prejudice or unwarranted stereotyping relating to the claimant's status as a family caregiver. The new provision provides that the inclusion of family caregiver status as a prohibited category of discrimination does not create a right to accommodation or impose any duty on employers to alter work schedules or other conditions of employment. (Not adopted)
