Joint Standing Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

State may request a warrantless arrest of the person by a law enforcement officer.

8. It amends the administrative release provision to make reference to the fact that if the attorney for the State has probable cause to believe that the person placed on administrative release has violated an administrative release requirement, in addition to the option of applying for an arrest warrant, the attorney for the State may request a warrantless arrest of the person by a law enforcement officer.

9. It addresses the use of less-than-lethal munitions discharged from a firearm by law enforcement officers, corrections officers and corrections supervisors by amending 3 separate statutory provisions. First, it amends Title 17-A, section 101, subsection 5 to provide that the use of a less-than-lethal munition by those state agents constitutes, as a matter of law, the use of nondeadly force and defines "less-than-lethal munition" as "a low-kinetic energy projectile designed to be discharged from a firearm that is approved by the Board of Trustees of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy." Second, it amends the definition of "deadly force" in Title 17-A, section 2, subsection 8 to exclude the intentional, knowing or reckless discharge of a firearm in the direction of another person using a less-than-lethal munition and adds the mental state of "knowingly." Third, it amends Title 25, section 2803-B to require that all law enforcement agencies adopt a written policy on the use of physical force, including the use of an electronic weapon and less-than-lethal munitions and certify the same to the board; that the board establish policies for the expanded use of physical force; and all law enforcement agencies certify to the board that they have provided orientation and training for its members with respect to policies regarding expanded use of physical force.

10. It also specifies that, notwithstanding any other law or rule of evidence, a certificate by the custodian of the records of the Board of Trustees of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy, when signed and sworn to by that custodian, or the custodian's designee, is admissible in a judicial or administrative proceeding as prima facie evidence of any fact stated in the certificate or in any documents attached to the certificate.
