An Act To Extend Access to Federal Health Insurance Premium Assistance

P & S 39 EMERGENCY

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
TREAT BOWMAN	OTP-AM	Н-722

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 provided help to people who lost their jobs from September 1, 2008 to December 31, 2009 by paying 65% of their so-called COBRA health insurance coverage for a period of nine months from the time they were terminated. Public Law 2009, chapter 244, Part J provided a second election period for certain workers who had declined coverage referred to as Mini-COBRA coverage before the federal subsidies were available. The United States Congress recently passed an extension of the COBRA coverage provisions, extending the job termination date for eligibility for the subsidies from December 31, 2009 to February 28, 2010 and the COBRA 65% assistance from nine months to 15 months. This bill extends the coverage period consistent with federal law for those workers who enrolled in Mini-COBRA during the second election period.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-722)

This amendment clarifies the applicability of the notice requirement and recognizes the recent extension of the program enacted by Congress until March 31, 2010.

Enacted Law Summary

Private and Special Law 2009, chapter 39 recognizes the extensions enacted by Congress for those unemployed workers eligible for a federal subsidy for their Mini-COBRA health insurance coverage. The federal law extended the job termination eligibility date from December 31, 2009 to March 31, 2010 and the coverage period for the federal subsidy from nine months to 15 months. Private and Special Law 2009, chapter 39 requires health insurers to provide notice of the extensions enacted by Congress to certain workers whose employment terminated between September 1, 2008 and March 31, 2010 and who elected to continue Mini-COBRA coverage and to any employees whose employment terminates after March 31, 2010 who are eligible for premium assistance.

Private and Special Law 2009, chapter 39 was enacted as an emergency measure effective March 26, 2010.
