An Act To Allow Provisional Drivers To Transport Persons under Guardianship and Children of Active Military Personnel

FLOOD MCCORMICK	OTP-AM	H-14

Current law prohibits a person under 18 years of age who has been issued a driver's license from carrying passengers other than immediate family members, including foreign exchange students, for 6 months after being issued a license unless accompanied by an older driver. This bill allows a young driver to carry a passenger who is a person under guardianship of an immediate family member of the young driver or is a child whose parent is deployed for military service if that person or child lives with the immediate family of the young driver.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-14)

This amendment modifies the exception in the bill allowing a young driver to carry a passenger who is a person under guardianship of an immediate family member to specify that the guardianship is court-appointed.

This amendment also adds details to the provision allowing a young driver to carry a child whose parent is deployed for military service, specifying that the child must be under guardianship of an immediate family member as provided on an Armed Forces Family Care Plan form.

The amendment defines "deployed for military service" to mean assigned to active military duty with the state military forces, as defined in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 37-B, section 102, or the United States Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves, whether pursuant to orders of the Governor or the President of the United States, when the duty assignment is in a combat theater, in an area where armed conflict is taking place or in an area away from a person's normal duty station.
