It also requires the department to report the task force's findings and recommendations to the Joint Standing Committee on Inland Fisheries and Wildlife by February 1, 2012.

LD 254 An Act To Amend the Standards by Which Law Enforcement Officers May Stop an All-terrain Vehicle Operating on Private Property PUBLIC 248

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
SARTY DIAMOND	OTP-AM MAJ ONTP MIN	H-160

Current law provides that a game warden may stop an all-terrain vehicle to ascertain whether a violation of the law has occurred if the game warden has a reasonable and articulable suspicion to believe that a violation of the law has taken place or is taking place. This bill allows a game warden to stop an all-terrain vehicle without a reasonable and articulable suspicion to believe a violation of the law has occurred, which was the standard in law prior to 2009.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-160)

This amendment retains the provisions of the bill and clarifies existing law that authorizes all law enforcement officers, not just game wardens, to enforce the provisions of the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 12, Part 13. It does not expand or otherwise restrict the current authority of game wardens or other law enforcement officers.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2011, chapter 248 authorizes a law enforcement officer to stop an all-terrain vehicle without a reasonable and articulable suspicion to believe a violation of the law has occurred.
