Joint Standing Committee on Energy, Utilities and Technology

The bill establishes the Maine Residential Energy Conservation Program within the Efficiency Maine Trust. It requires an owner of a residential property who is applying for a permit for substantial renovation of a residential structure or a seller of a residential property to obtain an energy audit by an energy advisor, providing a copy of the audit report to a buyer in the case of a sale; either make a minimum required expenditure on home energy improvements or install all energy efficiency measures identified by an energy advisor in an audit report with a payback period of 10 years or less; and obtain an inspection of the dwelling from an energy advisor after improvements have been installed to ensure compliance. If home energy improvements are made in anticipation of a sale, the cost of compliance must be borne by the buyer. The bill provides exemptions for certain sales and transfers and for certain residential structures.

LD 1234 An Act To Restore the Uniform Visual Permitting Standard for Wind Power Projects ONTP

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
DUNPHY WHITTEMORE	ONTP

This bill eliminates specific visual permitting standards for wind energy development to provide that wind energy developments are subject to the same visual permitting standards as other developments.

The committee considered 14 bills related to wind energy development during the First Regular Session of the 125th legislature. The committee voted all of the wind energy bills, except LD 1366, An Act to Update the Maine Wind Energy Act to Include Low-emission Energy, ought-not-to-pass. The committee amendment to LD 1366 was used as a vehicle to address many of the wind energy issues brought forward in the other bills.

LD 1236 An Act To Amend the Legislative Findings in the Maine Wind Energy Act ONTP

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
DUNPHY WHITTEMORE	ONTP

This bill amends the Maine Wind Energy Act to amend the findings of the Legislature regarding the presumption of benefits of wind energy development. The bill also removes the requirement that a primary siting authority presume that a grid-scale wind energy development project provides energy and emissions-related benefits. The bill also corrects a conflict created by Public Law 2009, chapters 615 and 655, which affected the same provision of law, by incorporating the changes made by both laws and removing the requirement that the Public Utilities Commission, when determining public need for a transmission line, consider state renewable energy generation goals.

The committee considered 14 bills related to wind energy development during the First Regular Session of the 125th legislature. The committee voted all of the wind energy bills, except LD 1366, An Act to Update the Maine Wind Energy Act to Include Low-emission Energy, ought-not-to-pass. The committee amendment to LD 1366 was used as a vehicle to address many of the wind energy issues brought forward in the other bills.
