Joint Standing Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

This amendment changes the fee imposed on a person applying for transfer of supervision to another state under the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision from between $100 and $250 to a flat fee of $100. Instead of requiring a person accepted for supervision under the compact to submit to having a DNA sample taken if the offense has the essential elements of an offense in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 25, section 1574, subsection 5, it limits the applicable offenses to those of a crime punishable by imprisonment for one year or more.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2011, chapter 677 permits the Department of Corrections to require the payment of a fee of $100 by adult probationers who apply for a transfer of supervision under the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision to another state. It includes appropriate safeguards to ensure that lack of ability to pay the fee does not result in an adverse action.

It also requires that application fees paid by persons applying to transfer to other states and supervision fees paid by persons transferring to Maine must be deposited into the department's nonlapsing adult community corrections account to offset associated costs.

Public Law 2011, chapter 677 also requires that a person transferring to Maine for supervision in the community submit to the taking of a DNA sample if the offense for which the person is being supervised is a crime punishable by imprisonment for one year or more.

Amendments Adopted

S-446

This bill amends the combined interstate compacts for the supervision of juveniles and adult offenders, as adopted by the State, to establish a separate state council for juveniles as required by the Interstate Compact for Juveniles. These compacts apply to the supervision of juveniles and adult offenders who are on probation, as well as others, and who wish to move from the state in which they were sentenced to another state. Under current law, there is a single state council for adult offender and juvenile supervision. The State Council for Juvenile Supervision includes membership appointed to the Juvenile Justice Advisory Group in order to ensure coordination and communication of policies and protocols affecting juvenile justice practices.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-446)

This amendment incorporates a fiscal note.
