Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary

This bill also requires a person making a fraudulent registration of a trademark to pay all damages to a person injured by the registration, including court costs and attorney's fees, and directs the Attorney General to prosecute the crime as an unsworn falsification and seek all legal remedies, including equitable relief, from the court.

This bill ensures that guardians ad litem and parenting coordinators are accountable. This bill:

1. Requires the court to impose limits on the extent of investigations to be undertaken by a guardian ad litem to prevent escalation of conflict and antagonistic conduct of the parents and to protect children from long-term exposure to traumatic processes;
2. Requires all guardians ad litem and parenting coordinators to have sufficient education and training in social work;
3. Requires the court to set expenditure limits on guardian ad litem and parenting coordinator fees and any other costs incurred in investigations or the completion of the duties of the appointment;
4. Removes the quasi-judicial immunity provided to guardians ad litem and parenting coordinators by statute; and
5. Allows a cause of action and the award of punitive damages against guardians ad litem and parenting coordinators who falsely accuse parties of abuse or neglect or who intentionally exclude from reports to the parties or the court relevant information.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-434)

This amendment is the minority report of the Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary. The bill removes quasi-judicial immunity established under the current law for guardians ad litem appointed under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 18-A, Title 19-A and Title 22, and for parenting coordinators appointed under Title 19-A. This amendment provides that there is no civil liability for a guardian ad litem or parenting coordinator for good faith acts or omissions that are within the scope of the duties of the guardian ad litem or parenting coordinator, as long as there is no gross negligence. The cause of action against the guardian ad litem or parenting coordinator as proposed in the bill is retained.

This amendment was not adopted.
