LD 1628

An Act To Require a Timely Response by a Gas Company to a Municipal Request for Service Expansion

ONTP

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
GRATWICK THERIAULT	ONTP

This bill requires a natural gas utility to respond within six months to a municipality's request for the natural gas utility to build a pipeline extension within that municipality if that municipality is within the natural gas utility's service territory. If the natural gas utility requires a financial contribution for the construction, the natural gas utility must provide justification to the municipality for the amount required.

The committee considered this bill with LD 1621. The committee voted this bill ought-not-to-pass and unanimously supported an amended version of LD 1621 which directs the Governor's Energy Office to include the expansion of natural gas as a component of the state energy plan. The committee also sent a letter to the Governor's Energy
